

Ann Osborne Outreach Program 2024

Accra, Ghana. Military Hospital

November 2-8, 2024

Monday, November 4- Military hospital

8:30 -1 pm: teaching brain ultrasound, brain of cerebral venous sinuses, imaging the sutures, and case base ultrasound interactive) = about 25-30 in person (+200 on line)

2-3:30 pm: hands on ultrasound session on brain ultrasound

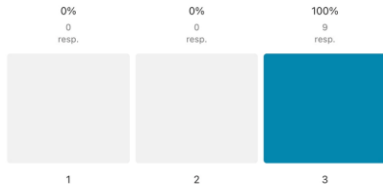

3:30-4 pm: Tour of the hospital

Feedback day 1:

★ 1 How would you rate the presentation ★ Avg. 3

9 out of 9 people answered this question

🗨️ 2 Did you find the lectures added value to your practice?

9 out of 9 people answered this question

🗨️ 3 Feedback?

8 out of 9 people answered this question

Great presentation... Concise and comprehensive. Easily digestible.

3 days ago

It was an excellent presentation and very practical.

3 days ago

🗨️ 3 Feedback?

8 out of 9 people answered this question

The topics are very useful for our daily practice

3 days ago

Very helpful information. The case discussion also helped with understanding and retention.

3 days ago

🗨️ 3 Feedback?

8 out of 9 people answered this question

Dr.Elka's approach to teaching of neuroimaging is unlike anything I have ever seen.These lectures will help me for the rest of my career.

3 days ago

A very good series of lectures.

3 days ago

🗨️ 3 Feedback?

8 out of 9 people answered this question

Very good series of lectures Very educative and informative. Thank you Prof.

3 days ago

Keep up the good Job

3 days ago

Day 2. Tuesday November 5, 2024

8:30 -1pm : teaching posterior fossa anomalies, congenital infections in the neonate, ultrasound cases, and case base ultrasound interactive)= about 25-30 in person (+200 on line)

2-3:30 pm: Jeopardy game in pediatric neuroradiology cases (2 teams in class and 1 team in the chat (about 175 on line)

3:30-6 pm: Tour in the city (with 2 residents)

6:00 pm: Helping scanning brain of a 3 m in the Military Hospital

Day 3. Wednesday November 6, 2024

8:30 -1pm: patterns of brain injury in the neonate, petrous emergencies, SNHL in peds) = about 25-30 in person (+178 online)

2-3:30 pm: Jeopardy game in pediatric neuroradiology cases (2 teams in class and 1 team in the chat (about 175 online)

Day 4. Thursday November 7, 2024

8 am: visit to the NICU

8:30 -12 pm: brain and spine cases for residents= about 25 in person (+155 on line)

Afternoon: Free time

Day 5

9:45-11 am: Pediatric Neck Emergencies. (10 on site /140 on line)

11 am: Wrap up. Farewell meeting with the leads of the department. Present a token of appreciation from Africa (Thank you!)

11:15-2 pm: World Radiology Day 2024

2-3 pm: Hands on session ultrasound head and spine (2 patients)

3-4 pm: review cases with the residents

Radiology day in Ghana 2024

